

The Joint Communiqué of the meeting of the Heads of the Competition Authorities of the Federative Republic of Brazil, the Russian Federation, the Republic of India and the People's Republic of China, as a result of the BRIC International Competition Conference

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) held their meeting in Kazan, Russia, on September 1, 2009 during the BRIC International Competition Conference.

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) emphasized that the BRIC dialogue in the framework of competition policy is based on mutual trust and respect.

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) recognized that an effective competition policy is one of the important factors in addressing global financial crisis.

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) expressed their strong commitment to further exchange opinions on different aspects of competition policy and enforcement through four-way dialogue in international fora already in place in which they participate.

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) recommended the publication of the material of the BRIC International Competition Conference on their respective official websites for the purpose of competition advocacy.

The Heads of the competition authorities of Brazil, Russia, India and China (BRIC) expressed their willingness to organize the BRIC International Competition Conference on regular basis.

For the Brazilian Competition Policy System

For the Federal Antimonopoly Service of the Russian Federation

For the Competition Commission of India

For the State Administration for Industry & Commerce of the People's Republic of China